Serial No 1

Letter no. Jus C 501/29-30 dated 5th Sept 1929 from the Deputy Commissioner Shimoga District, requesting sanction to the resolution of the Sagar Municipal Council to levy profession tax in the municipality under sec 60 (1) (m) (n), before imposing a tax rules have to be framed for the purpose of cl (i) of sec 46. From the foot note to the notification published by the Municipal Council, it is seen that the Council propose to make persons holding offices or appointments (public or private) and pensioners also liable (The preamble of the notification requires revision to make the matter clear.

2) The rules have to provide for refunds and exemptions. Bye-laws for enforcement of supply of information to facilitate assessment are also necessary.

3) It is proposed to restrict the levy to Lawyers, officials, medical practitioners and native Pundits. It is not clear why this restriction is necessary and whether the exemption of persons carrying on their professions is necessary and equitable.

4) A statement showing separately the number of persons carrying on each kind of profession (except shop-keepers) and the income that may be realised

The Municipal Council may be asked to attend to the above observations. It may also be necessary to ask them reasons for all these proposals. It is for their assistance to write. Yes/No

The Municipal Council may be asked to attend to the above observations. It may also be necessary to ask them reasons for all these proposals. It is for their assistance to write. Yes/No

This seems unnecessary
